REY CAMPERO

Come from Oaxaca's wild Sierra Madre region under maestros Ramos, Matus and Jácome. Altogether, this flight showcases Rey Campero's farm-driven portfolio and wild-agave tradition

JABALI

Crafted by Master Mezcalero Vicente Sánchez Parada at La Candela in Candelaria Yegolé, Zoquitlán. The journey begins with agave hearts slow-roasted in a traditional conical earth oven, then ground with a tahona (stone mill) to release their rich juices. Fermentation takes place in open-air pine and sabino wood vats, using pure Quiechapa River water and relying entirely on wild yeasts from the surrounding environment — capturing the unique terroir of this mezcal's birthplace

MADRE CUISHE

Is distinctive and rustic, offering lean minerality and peppery agave flavors

PECHUGA

Is a unique style of mezcal that undergoes a third distillation with quail (codorniz) breast, fruits, and spices, resulting in a complex flavor profile. It offers a balance of savory, fruity, and smoky notes, often described as having hints of roasted agave, citrus peel, nuts, and subtle smoke on the nose, and layers of ripe fruit, warm spices, and umami richness on the palate

$67

EL TESORO

Is a family-run tequila from the highlands of Jalisco. This flight gives a textbook tour of El Tesoro's smooth, full-bodied tequilas

BLANCO

REPOSADO

Is aged 9–11 months in American oak (ex-bourbon barrels), imparting sweet vanilla and toasted oak notes alongside rich agave and a hint of smoke

AÑEJO

SILVER

Is crisp and herbaceous; rested 25 month in oak, it tastes like a clean, silver tequila with soft vanilla hints

HERRADURA'S REPOSADO

A pioneer at 11 months aging – is richly amber; expect buttery cooked agave with subdued spice and vanilla from the long barrel aging

AÑEJO (25 MONTHS IN OAK)

Is deep and complex, featuring slow-roasted agave aromas, pronounced aged-wood and toasted-almond notes, and warm baking spices

$39

CRISTALINO

Cristalino tequilas, aged tequila, as reposado, añejos or extra-añejos that have been filtered—often through charcoal—to remove the color gained from oak aging while preserving the complexity and smoothness of mature tequila. This flight offers a refined and premium tasting experience, with silky textures and rich agave depth

DON JULIO 70 CRISTALINO AÑEJO

Aged 18 months and filtered to crystal clarity, Don Julio 70 combines the smoothness of a blanco with the richness of an añejo. Expect subtle vanilla, toasted oak, and lingering roasted agave sweetness with a velvety finish

GRAN CENTENARIO CRISTALINO AÑEJO

Aged in American oak before charcoal filtration, this Cristalino offers notes of honeyed agave, dried fruit, white chocolate, and a whisper of citrus zest. Exceptionally smooth with an elegant mouthfeel

HERRADURA ULTRA AÑEJO CRISTALINO

A blend of añejo and extra-añejo tequilas aged up to 49 months, sweetened with a hint of agave nectar. After filtration, it delivers flavors of caramel, vanilla, toasted almonds, and soft spice — ultra-smooth and rich
